Thanks Jesse – your responses were very helpful. After Sabrina makes sure the one remaining tracked change is carried forward to the Spanish section, we will send you back a clean version.

Hi Jesse – I have asked Sabrina to take a look at the needed changes to the Spanish language section tomorrow morning. In the meantime I wanted to send you the current version. There are a few remaining comments/questions in there for you. After you get those answers to me I can give you a clean version that is ready for your next steps.

Thanks

Treat
